VOL. XVIII] WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 21, 1818. [No. 5129.

For the prevention and cure of
BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended
HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders	Violent cramps in the stomach and back
Consumptions	Indigestion
Lowness of spirits	Melancholy
Loss of appetite	Gout in the stomach
Impurity of blood	Pains in the limbs
Hysteric affection	Relaxations, etc.
Inward weaknesses and debility

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaister.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water,

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of nature weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops

For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.

☞ At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from Peter Graham, living near Middleburg, Loudoun county, Va. on the night of the 25th of March last, a very likely Negro girl, named ANN, purchased of Wm. Noland, living at Aldie, Loudoun county, whose family she was raised in. She is of a yellow complexion, round faced, thick lips, with large staring eyes, and rather delicate featured for a slave;—small feet, a tolerable ready speech, and mild with it; about 18 years of age, middle size, and very well made; rather thick, about 5 feet high from appearance. She had on when she went away a dress of coating cloth, made in a coat and jacket, with skirts of a brown snuff color. I have reason to believe she is in or near Philadelphia or New-York. I will give fifty dollars reward if taken in Fauquier, Loudoun, Prince William, or Fairfax counties, or the District of Columbia, if taken in any other county or state, and secured in any jail, so that I obtain information and get her, I will give one hundred dollars, and all reasonable charges paid in either case, if brought home.

ON SHERIDAN.

BY DURT.

He's gone!—and the spirit etherial, undying,
Has entered the long night of stillness and gloom;
And genius around him, in wild sorrow flying,
Shall brighten the laurel that hangs o'er his tomb.
Dear emblem of greatness! still flourish unfading,
To mark where the bright star ha h set in the grave,
(For to Sheridan dear is the spot thou art shading)
Which glows with the last parting radiance it gave.

It shall rise like his soul, which, envelop'd in darkness,
Cast a glory around, that no gloom could deform,
When life's opening sky was o'erclouded and sparkless,
And angrily lower'd with the pestilent storm:
It shall bloom on the sod, chill'd by death's pallid fingers,
And the sigh of the Muse, as each fresh bud appears,
Will fan it to beauty, while fondly she lingers
To water the cold turf unseen with her tears.

Then spurn not his name, but reflect whom thou slightest,
And give to remembrance the soul-treasur'd tear;
He had faults as a man—but where genius shines brightest,
The dark spots of folly the darker appear:
In December's cold night when the tempest is howling,
We mark not one cloud through the gloomy profound—
But when radiant the sky, if that lone cloud were scowling,
How darkly 'twould hang 'mid the brightness around.

He's gone!—but the spirit etherial, undying,
Shall burst from the long night of stillness and gloom,
Like the morn of that land, which, ere night shades are flying,
Breaks forth at one flash, and the light is their tomb.
Then as genius on earth shew'd the man as it found him,
Nor hung the light veil, by kind charity given—
Ah! may mercy at last throw her mantle around him,
And the darkness be lost in the brightness of Heaven.

EXTRAORDINARY ACCIDENT.

The following extraordinary accident occurred about 5 o'clock on the morning of Friday last, in Carmerthen:—As a drove of oxen were passing thro' Spilman street, one of them strayed to the Castle Green, whence in his headlong course he fell over the precipice facing the bridge, upon a house, of which the inhabitants were asleep in bed. It will naturally be supposed that the terror and alarm excited on the occasion were great. Fortunately, however, part of the roof fell in, while the ox was balancing athwart a beam, exactly over a bed in which were two children fast asleep, and who were awakened by a rafter falling upon the bed. Notwithstanding all the alarm and bustle created by this occurrence, we are happy to add that no personal injury was sustained on the occasion, and what is equally remarkable, the ox does not appear to have suffered materially from his extraordinary descent. [English paper.

MOURNING.

THE SEASON.

Such is the extraordinary mildness of the present season, that a second crop of strawberries is at this time actually growing on some plants in a garden at Prescott. [ibid.

NATURAL PHENOMENA.

There is at present in a gentleman's garden at Kensington, Low hill, near Liverpool, a pear tree, the fruit of whose bloom was gathered two months ago. It has since then had fruit on from the second bloom; and is now in bloom for the third time this season. [ibid Nov. 20.

Golden Rule of Agriculture.

A practical husbandman of the highest authority assures us, that the golden rule of agriculture is—to use such manures as will make heavy land lighter, and light land heavier, cold land hot, and hot land colder. He who knows and follows this rule, and he only, is a farmer. [ibid.

ALEXANDRIA:
WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 21, 1818.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

Tuesday, January 20, 1818.

One of those bills which are rarely known to furnish matter for long debate, gave, yesterday, rise to a discussion which lasted till past four o'clock. It was an appropriation bill, for military purposes; and probably would have experienced little opposition if it were not for an amendment of it proposed by Mr. Lowndes, the chairman of the committee of ways and means, who reported it, and, as he said, at the desire of that committee. The amendment went to strike out a clause which provided a sum of thirty-five thousand dollars for the payment of brevet officers. Mr. Mercer opposed this proposition with much animation and warmth. He deprecated it as a violation of the faith pledged by that house to the army, and as such not strictly correct or honorable. In the moment of urgent distress, at the commencement of the war, government held out this promise of brevet rank not only with its honors, but with its emoluments, to induce our citizens to enter into the army; and now, the war being over, and there being little or no occasion for their services, they were to be cast off without their pay, and their claims repelled, and in that house baffled with metaphysical distinctions.—The act which passed in 1812 held out, as an incentive, brevet rank to officers in cases where they distinguished themselves; and particularly specified that they should have the pay annexed to the rank when employed in posts or districts or departments separate from their own regiments. Mr. Mercer dwelt with great emphasis on the gallant and meritorious conduct of the army, and said that it was not so much for the reward as for the example he pushed the rights of the brevet officers, which were so manifest that he defied any ingenuity to give a construction of the act of 1812 that could defeat them. Till that law should be repealed the committee of finance were bound to provide for the payment of the sums it promised; and had no right whatever to propose to the house to cancel the debt in the manner now attempted. He was, he said, one of the last who would agree to a reduction of the army. He even thought the army established for the peace was much too small; yet he would rather reduce the army than repeal the law of 1812. Mr. Mercer was supported in his opposition to the amendment by general Harrison, Mr. Ogle, Mr. Baldwin and general Smith, who were replied to by Mr. Clay, Mr. Calhraith, Mr. Serjeant, general Read and Mr. Taylor. The observations of Mr. Clay are deserving of particular notice. He said, as nearly as we could collect it, to the effect that a spirit prevailed of making the army a paramount object of national reward and aggrandisement, and of a gratitude without any reasonable limits, as if the obligations it had conferred were such as the country could scarcely repay, and as if the country were made for the army; but this extravagant spirit HE would ever oppose—knowing that the army was made for the country. From what was constantly heard, one would suppose that they who composed the army were dragged into it reluctantly, and that the nation had contracted when their services was over to retain them on their pay list for life.—But every one knew that, by their original contract, they were to be no longer retained than should be found necessary for the prosecution of the war; at the end of which it was well understood that they were to return back again to civil life. On these terms they were called in and paid during the service. He expressed his ardent hope that he should never see in this country during peace such an army as would keep it at all times prepared for going to war, being convinced, and he avowed it with regret, that it would end in the destruction of the liberties of the country.

Mr. Clay repelled most successfully every insinuation that the military had not received, to the full measure of their deserts, great as those deserts were, every reward, whether of gratitude, applause, the love of their fellow-citizens, or pecuniary gratification, which they could reasonably hope for. Poets, historians, legislatures, theatrical companies, corporate bodies, and civic assemblies, in every part of the union, all concurred in honoring and liberally rewarding them. He denied that the grant of brevet had pay annexed to it by the law, unless where the officer acted in a separate post—and yet what was the consequence of even that indulgence?—Why, the War Department was incessantly importuned by brevet officers to place them at separate posts—not because their services were wanted there; but that they might receive the pay annexed to that situation. To correct, and at one stroke cure this grievance, was, he said, the object of the motion. That if the public exigencies required the services of those officers at separate posts, they were, under the act of 1812, entitled to pay, he would be the last to deny—But to their right to be paid when they got there, solely by their own importunity, he for one, would never agree. It was a flagrant abuse, and it ought to be corrected.

Mr. Mercer said that the remedy for that abuse was to correct and prevent a repetition of it, not to abrogate the law abused.

General Harrison said that the officers actually performing duty as brevets, would be thrown out along with the others, if this motion passed; and

Mr. Baldwin insisted that while the law was unrepealed, the appropriation ought not to be withheld. To strike out the section was the same as to say, that though they had passed an act promising to pay those officers, they would withhold their pay from them. If any of them were appointed to posts, the war department was responsible for the abuse. And upon the whole it was unworthy of the house, for so small a sum, to get rid of such a solemn pledge.

As I have already gone to the full length of my customary tether, I should stop here, if it were not once more to endeavor to do justice to my old favorite, Mr. Ogle. He said that if the house was positively assured of a permanent peace, it might be wise policy, of a certain kind, to withhold these people's pay from them—because it would save so much money, and could do no harm by discouraging men from fighting for us hereafter. But as he believed that if we did not become more virtuous than we are, we should soon have another war, he thought it would be best to pay these officers, by way of an inducement hereafter to others to fight for us. "Besides, (said he) will it not look like a trick, to promise, and not pay them?—Look at England! (continued he)—and sure no one will pretend to compare England with this country—the English purchased an estate of eighty thousand pounds sterling a year for Lord Wellington.—There was brevetting for you! As to an army of 50,000 men destroying our liberties, he would not believe that 100,000 could do it—for American soldiers were all virtuous citizens. No—it was not soldiers; it was ambitious citizens—great men—nabobs that would do that job for us, if ever it was to be done at all. As to this mode of paying brave men for fighting our quarrels, it was not such as he could approve of—"How did you lose your legs, my poor fellow?—Where did you lose your arms?—No matter—WE will pay you for them—don't be afraid—we will pay you—with WIND—with breath—with promises; but as for money—why that is a dear article at present." "Now I," continued Mr. Ogle, "I want them to have a little of it in cash!"

The following gentlemen were on Monday last elected Directors of the Bank of Alexandria, for the ensuing year:

William Herbert
Jonah Thompson
Nathaniel Wattles
William Fowle
Mordecai Miller
Charles Simmes
Jonathan Janney
Anthony C. Cazenove
John Lloyd
Thomas H. Howland

And at a meeting of the Bank on Tuesday, WM. HERBERT, Esq. was re-elected President.

The following gentlemen were on the 15th inst. elected Directors of the Marine Insurance Company of Alexandria, for the ensuing year:

GENERAL MINA AGAIN

Captain Gantz, arrived here last evening in the schooner Elizabeth, 28 days fr. Campeachy, states, that a few days before sailing, advices were received there of General Mina's having been EXECUTED in the neighborhood of Mexico, on account of which the town was brilliantly illuminated. Captain G. further states that it was asserted and fully credited that the followers of Mina were either dispersed or annihilated; of course, the cause of the Patriots in Mexico must be in a most forlorn state.

VALLEY BANK.

Agreeably to notice, the Stockholders of the Bank of the Valley assembled at the Court House in this place on Wednesday last, when the meeting was organized by calling the Honorable Dabney Carr to the chair, and appointing Thomas A. Tidball, Esq. Secretary. Some business preparatory to the election of Directors, which was postponed until the next day was done. On Thursday the Stockholders again assembled when, on counting the ballots, it appeared that

Charles Magill,
Edward M'Guire,
John Bell,
Thomas Cramer,
Obed Waite and
Lewis Wolfe. Esquires,

were elected Directors by a large majority. It is worthy of note that Colonel Magill received the unanimous support of the stockholders. The whole number of votes to which the Stockholders are entitled, amounted to 2700 of which 2,500 were polled. It was resolved, that Offices of Discount and Deposit be located at Leesburg and Romney. The subject of locating the branch in Berkely or Jefferson Counties, was postponed until Thursday, when, after an interesting and animating debate among different gentlemen of the long robe from Martinsburg, Shepherdstown, and Charlestown, it was determined to locate the centre branch at Charlestown. The votes stood thus.

For Charlestown	1215.
Shepherdstown	688.
Martinsburg	441.

The following Gentlemen were unanimously elected Directors of the office of Discount and Deposit at Romney and Leesburg, viz.

AT ROMNEY.

James Daily,
William Fox,
William Nailor,
Warner Throckmorton,
John M'Dowell,
James Machir,
John Heep,
David Parsons,
William Armstrong,
Christopher Heiskell,
William Donaldson,
John Wright,
Jacob Vandever.

AT LEESBURG.

Wilson C. Seldon,
Ludwell Lee,
Richard H. Henderson,
John Rose,
Asa Moore,
Fleet Smith,
Cuthbert Powell,
George Rust,
Charles B. Ball,
Aaron Saunders,
Robert Braden,
John J. Harding,
Samuel Carr.

The Act of Incorporation having vested the Stockholders with the power of establishing the offices of Discount and Deposit subject to "such Government, and under such rules and regulations as they might deem proper" it was deemed advisable, in as much as it was the unanimous opinion of the meeting that nine directors (the number appropriated to the Parent Institution) were insufficient to appoint thirteen for the branches—It is sincerely hoped that the legislature will yet, at the present session, pass a special act to authorize an increase also of the board of the Mother Bank.

ANOTHER SKIRMISH WITH THE INDIANS.

An express reached Darien on Wednesday last, from Major General Gaines, to Major N.N. the officer commanding at Darien, dated at the mouth of the Oconee river, 5th January, 1818, stating that he (General Gaines) had just received an express from Col. Arbuckle, informing him that Major Muhlenburg, who was ascending the Flint river with three vessels having on board a detachment of United States' troops, provisions, etc. was attacked thirty miles below Fort Scott by twelve hundred Indians and ——, from both sides of the river, on the 16th ult. When the express left, which was on the 18th, the firing from both parties continued; at which time Major Muhlenburg had three men killed & thirteen wounded; but there was not the least apprehension of any of the vessels being taken that were under his command. The troops so defended themselves in the vessels, from the enemy, that they were perfectly safe. No man was killed or wounded only when in the act of warping, or casting anchor. Capt. M'Intosh, who commanded a post 12 miles from Fort Scott, with 40 men, was attacked on the 15th ultimo, by between 2 and 300 Indians—Capt. M. defeated them without losing a single man, and has since been relieved. There had also been a skirmish between the friendly and hostile savages, in which the chief of the former was killed, in consequence of which a number of the party under his command deserted and joined the hostile Indians. The drafted troops from this division were assembling at Darien every day, and it was understood that they would march immediately for Hartford. Gen. Glascock, at the head of 1000 men from this state, left Hartford for the Indian nation on the 27th ult. in good order and high spirits. We understand the troops that were drafted from this city will take up their line of march on Wednesday next for Darien.

AMELIA ISLAND.

DOCUMENTS ACCOMPANYING THE MESSAGE OF THE PRESIDENT TO CONGRESS, ON THE 12TH INSTANT.

(Concluded.)

Navy Department,
Nov. 14, 1817.

SIR,—Having been appointed to the command of the United States' ship John Adams, you are hereby ordered, in conformity to the wishes of the President of the United States, to proceed forthwith to the port of St. Mary's, in Georgia, taking with you the United States' brigs Enterprize and Prometheus, and the schooner Lynx, if the two latter have arrived in New-York, and are in a state of readiness to accompany you; but you will not procrastinate the departure of the ship John Adams on account of these vessels, as any of them not fully prepared to proceed with you shall be ordered to join you as soon as practicable at St. Mary's, at which place you will find the United States' brig Saranac, captain John H. Elton, and gun boat No. 168, lieutenant commandant R. M'Call, both of which vessels will act under your orders.

The object of the President of the United States in ordering this naval force to St. Mary's, is to remove from Amelia Island the persons who have lately taken possession thereof, and, as it is understood and believed, without authority from the colonies, or any organized government whatever, and to the great annoyance of the United States. It has, therefore, been determined that these persons shall be removed from that island, and that possession shall be taken for the present by the land and naval forces of the United States.

On your arrival at St. Mary's, you will consult with the officer commanding the military force, who is instructed to cooperate with you in the performance of this service.

It is hoped that these persons will withdraw without bloodshed; and you will, for this purpose, should your relative rank be superior to that of the commanding officer of the land forces, make known to the chief commanding in Amelia the determination of the government of the United States to take possession of the island, and if the said chief, and the armed forces under his command, will peaceably quit the island, you will permit them so to do, taking special care that no depredations be committed on the inhabitants, whom it will be your duty to protect from violation or injury, either in their persons or property.

Should the force, however, now in command of the island, contrary to all expectations, resist and refuse absolutely to give up and abandon the same, you are to co-operate with the military force of the United States, to proceed and take possession of the island in the name and by the authority of the United States.

Should you fall in with, on your way to St. Mary's, or find in Amelia, any vessels from the United States, armed and equipped by American citizens, acting as privateers, contrary to the laws of the United States, you will capture such, and send them to Savannah, in Georgia, to be dealt with according to law.

You will detain all prizes, or other vessels, having slaves on board, as the presumption is strong that they are intended to be smuggled into the United States. You will report, from time to time, to this department, the operations of the force under your command.

I am, very respectfully, &c.

B. W. CROWNINSHIELD.

Com. J. D. Henley.

P. S. These orders are not to be delivered to any person.

U. States' ship John Adams,
off Amelia, Dec. 24, 1817.

SIR,—I have the honor to transmit a copy of the correspondence with general Aury, late commander of this place, and to inform you that the American flag was yesterday hoisted at Fernandina, and the island of Amelia taken possession of by the land forces under major Bankhead, of the United States' artillery.

All the black troops of general Aury have been embarked on board one of the ships lying in the port, and the remainder of his followers will be sent off the island as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made for the purpose. They are now engaged in watering their ships, and in the course of a week I hope to see all of them over the bar.

Most of the respectable inhabitants of this place retired on its capture by M'Gregor, and those now here are principally adventurers who have been attracted by motives of speculation, and, as I suspect and have every reason to believe, been engaged in the violation of our revenue laws; to prevent which, in future, such precautions will be taken as are within my power, and which will, I presume, be adequate to the purpose.

This will be sent by an express to Darien, the mail leaving this place but once a week.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your most obedient servant,

JOHN D. HENLEY.

The hon. B. W. Crowninshield,
Secretary of the Navy.

U. States' ship John Adams,
off Amelia, Dec. 30, 1817.

SIR,—Since my arrival here I have been so much engaged that I have not had one moment to write to my friends. You, no doubt, however, have some idea of my situation; and from my official reports know that the American flag is now flying on Amelia Island. As there are many novel cases which must present themselves, I should have been better pleased had my instructions been full;—but we are now left to act as circumstances may require, and I fear that Aury and his followers will give us much trouble before they quit the island. I am sorry to add that the Americans appear to be much worse than any others. Should we be able to get through this business so as to meet the approbation of the department, I shall feel much gratified; but I trust that should I err in any steps that I may take, it will be considered by the President as an error of judgment; for I do assure you that nothing would be so pleasing to me as to have my conduct here approved by the executive. I have endeavored to keep as close to the letter of my instructions as possible, and have avoided every difficulty that I possibly could. I regret very much the difficulty of communicating with the government. We have only one mail per week, and that does not remain in St. Mary's long enough to enable us to answer letters that we may receive by it.

The situation of my ship you are no doubt acquainted with, as I have written several times to the secretary on that subject. I, however, do not wish to leave this place until every thing is settled, and the government have established some kind of police for the better government of this place, which I am in hopes will take place ere long. I am fearful that Aury expects that the American government will relinquish Amelia; which impression will retard his departure.

I have the honor to be, sir,
Your most obedient servant,
J. D. HENLEY.

To the Flour and Rice Millers OF THE UNITED STATES.

GENTLEMEN,—It appears that many have refused to pay for license to use my improvements in the art of manufacturing flour, and in lessening the labor in rice mills, waiting the decision of the United States' courts; while many others have paid freely the sums I demanded for my license; there can exist no reason why some should pay and others be exempt. There has already been a sufficient number of decisions establishing the law, that each infringer is liable to pay treble my actual damages, which cannot be rated at less than the value of the use of my property during the infringement. I have expended the greatest part of a long, arduous, and indefatigable life in study and exertions to invent and introduce into useful operation several important and highly useful improvements, from which great benefits are derived to the users, and I could have put in operation many more equally useful, but was prevented by the unjustifiable opposition, wasting the profits of those in operation, which I had intended to apply to put others in operation which I had discovered; but which now lay dormant, to my great mortification and the public injury. I come into the courts claiming remuneration for my time and labor—the great expenses that I have incurred in advertising repeatedly over the United States, and in my agents travelling for many years to make the utility of the improvements known, and to instruct millwrights to make, and millers to use them. The law contemplates that I shall receive ample remuneration, and by it I was encouraged to risk the great expenses. I have repeatedly published that the price of my license for the remainder of the term should be, the full price of the labor and boarding saved by the use of my improvements in one year only, with lawful interest until paid; but to those who infringed my rights, and refused to pay when called on, I would, beginning with the year ending January 22, 1818, count the sum saved in labor and boarding during the last year (equal to the first price) as a new sum becoming due, and running on interest also; and so on, the 22d day of January in each and every year thereafter a new sum saved in labor and boarding becomes due, and runs on interest until license be purchased, demanding the interest only on all these sums, leaving the principal in the hands of the users; which is the least I can receive of them to meet the expenses which they have compelled me to incur. The above are now the only terms on which my agents are instructed to grant licenses, and they are instructed to institute suits against all infringers without giving them another call.

Those who wish to purchase licenses may apply to John Love, esq. Buckland, Prince William county, or to capt. John Moody, Richmond, Va.

OLIVER EVANS.

NOTE.—Persons using Mr. Evans' improvements, or parts of them, unpaid for, will be sued if they do not discharge the claim on application. Mr. William H. Alexander has, under my authority from Mr. Evans, been empowered to receive payments and deliver licenses to use his improvements. Payments, therefore, made to him, John Moody, or myself, will alone be valid, and save the expense of suit and treble damages to the defendants. JOHN LOVE.

Valuable Family Medicines.

JUST received, direct from the proprietors, the following valuable MEDICINES, all of which have been in use for a number of years past, in almost every part of the United States; have been highly patronized by people of the first respectability; and approved by those who have had occasion to make use of them, for the cure of those disorders for which they are severally calculated.

Dr. Lee's Genuine (Windham) Bilious Pills,

Universally known and used throughout the United States as a family medicine. The fame of these pills has become so great, that many have attempted to counterfeit them—to guard against this, the proprietors have procured a stereotype label, and each box of Genuine Lee's Pills will hereafter be enclosed in one of these labels, with these words on the sides: "Lee's Genuine Windham Bilious Pills," and on the end of the label the words, "Samuel Lee, patenter, &c. I. Thompson, agent, joint proprietor," &c. and should any be offered for sale without said label on them the purchaser may be apprised that they are counterfeit.

Dr. Thompson's celebrated Eye Water,

For the cure of inflamed and sore eyes of almost every description. This valuable preparation comes highly recommended from the most respectable sources.—Price 50 and 25 cents a bottle.

Dr. Rawson's Genuine Itch Ointment,

A certain and safe cure for that disagreeable complaint, as well as other irruptions of the skin. Price 37½ cents a box.

Dr. Rawson's Anti-Bilious and Stomachic Bitters,

For weakly and infirm constitutions. Price 37½ cents a box.

Hinckley's Infallible Remedy for the Piles,

A most valuable medicine. Price 50 cents a box.

Thompson's Aromatic Tooth Paste,

For whitening and preserving the teeth—it may be used with the greatest safety. Price 50 cents a box.

Specific Drops for the Tooth Ache,

Which, in almost every case, gives instant relief in that distressing complaint. Price 37½ cents a bottle.

Cooley's Vegetable Elixir. for Coughs, Asthmas, Consumptions, &c.

A very valuable medicine in those complaints. Price 50 cents a bottle.

For sale, in Alexandria, by Dr. Rich'd. H. Litle; in Washington City, by Dr. David Ott; in Georgetown, by Dr. John Ott, Otho M. Linthum & Co. and Nathaniel Jewitt.

James Kennedy & Son,

BOOKSELLERS,

KING-STREET, ALEXANDRIA,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from Lee's Medicine Store, No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Teres or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tænia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HAHN'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders	Violent cramps in the stomach and back
Consumptions
Lowness of spirits
Loss of appetite	Indigestion
Impurity of blood	Melancholy
Hysteric affection	Gout in the stomach
Inward weaknesses and debility	Pains in the limbs
	Relaxations, etc.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaister.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water,

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops,

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops

For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.

☞ At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.
